

VICTORIA CHILD PROTECTION REQUIREMENTS

This information is subject to change at any time. Refer to the Department of Justice website: <http://www.justice.vic.gov.au> and follow the Working with Children Check link under Business Units or contact 1300 652 879. This information was updated 1 April 2006.

Under the Working with Children Bill (2005) the Victorian Working with Children Check (Check) will require individuals who work or volunteer with children in certain capacities in identified occupations and activities to undergo screening for criminal offences.

A person who has no relevant criminal or professional disciplinary history will be granted an assessment notice. That notice will entitle the person to undertake child-related work. A person deemed unsuitable to work or volunteer with children will be given a negative notice and cannot work in child-related work. A negative notice can be appealed to Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (VCAT) provided the individual is not listed on the Sex Offenders Register or subject to an extended supervision order.

Who needs to apply for a Check

Any person who works in, or in connection with, in a paid or voluntary capacity, any of the 20 child-related occupational fields listed in the Act. This work must also usually involve (or be likely to involve) regular, direct contact with a child where that contact is not directly supervised. The following child-related categories are relevant to our sport.

- educational institutions for children (such as schools and some TAFE programs);
- clubs, associations or movements that provide services or conduct activities for or directed at children or whose membership is mainly comprised of children;
- coaching or private tuition services of any kind for children; and
- direct commercial provision (and not incidental or in support of other business activities) of gym or play facilities specifically for children.

Exemptions

The following people will not need to have a Check:

- individuals aged under 18
- volunteers involved in an activity in which their child ordinarily participates

- individuals working only with children who are close family relations
- secondary school students aged under 20 performing volunteer work arranged through the school where they are studying
- sworn members of Victoria Police
- teachers registered with the Victorian Institute of Teaching
- a visiting worker who does not ordinarily reside and perform child-related work in Victoria.

Phasing-in Arrangements

Checks are being phased in over the next five years, commencing in April 2006. The type of child-related work determines when people need to apply for a check. At this stage it is anticipated that the sport sector will be phased in 2008/09. More information on the phasing-in of Checks is available from www.justice.vic.gov.au.

Employer requirements

As an employer or volunteer organisation you must:

- ensure all employees or volunteers who are required to get a Check do so at the correct time, which is indicated in the phasing plan.
- where your employees or volunteers are not required to get a Check because their contact with children is directly supervised, ensure the supervisor has a Check unless an exemption applies. For example, the supervisor may be a registered teacher with the Victorian Institute of Teaching, making them exempt.
- ensure that employees or volunteers issued with a Negative Notice do not undertake child-related work as defined by the Working With Children Act 2005.

As an employer or volunteer organisation you should:

- record your employee's and volunteer's unique Application Receipt Number received when they submit their application. The Act enables a person to continue or commence work while their application is pending
- confirm that your employees and volunteers have been issued with an Assessment Notice after Check applications have been assessed by the Department of Justice

- sight your employee's or volunteer's Working with Children Check Card and confirm the status of their Card Number to verify that they have passed the Check. You can do this online from 1 July 2006, or by calling 1300 652 872
- record your employee's or volunteer's Card Number, which is different from their Application Receipt Number
- develop internal processes in the event of an existing employee or volunteer being issued with an Interim Negative Notice or Negative Notice.
