Individual Member means a person admitted to the Company as a member under clause 5.2.

Intellectual Property means all rights subsisting in copyright, business names, names, trademarks (or signs), logos, designs, equipment including computer software, images (including photographs, videos or films) or service marks relating to the Company or any activity of or conducted, promoted or administered by the Company.

League means a sporting league that is an Affiliate Member or an Associate Member.

Member means a member of the Company under clause 5.

Objects mean the objects of the Company in clause 2.

Official Position means, in connection with a body corporate or organisation, a person who:

- (a) holds a position, whether elected or appointed, as president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, director or equivalent of that body corporate or organisation; or
- (b) has, directly or indirectly, a material ownership or financial interest in that body corporate or organisation.

Policy means a policy made under clauses 7.2 and 20.1(a).

Registration means registration or affiliation of an Individual Member or Associated Member with the Company, Affiliated Member or Associated Member, such registration being in the form of a signed application form, whether in hard copy or by electronic means of acceptance and, in the case of Individual Members, their consent to membership of the Company as required by clause 5. Registered has a corresponding meaning.

Representative means a person (other than a proxy) appointed in accordance with the Corporations Act to represent an Affiliated Member at a General Meeting of the Company.

Sport means the "sport" of American Football or Gridiron as recognised and regulated by IFAF from time to time.

Sporting Power means that power delegated to the Company by IFAF, the Australian Government or any other entity for the exclusive control and management of the Sport in Australia.

Special Resolution has the same meaning as that given to it in the Corporations Act.

State means the States of Australia, which shall be deemed to include each of the Northern Territory and the Australian Capital Territory.

State Body means an Affiliate Member under clause 5.3 that has a geographic scope.

Statutes and Regulations mean the statutes and regulations of IFAF in force from time to time.

Telecommunications Meeting means a meeting held by telephone, video, any other technology (or any combination of these technologies), which permits each Director at a meeting of Directors or each Voting Member at a meeting of members to communicate with any other participant.

Voting Member means, in relation to a General Meeting, those Members present and entitled to vote in accordance with clause 5.1.

1.2. Interpretation

In this Constitution unless the context requires otherwise:

- (a) (presence of a Member) a reference to a Member present at a General Meeting means the Member present in person or by proxy or Representative;
- (b) (document) a reference to a document or instrument includes any amendments made to it from time to time and, unless the contrary intention appears, includes a replacement;

- (g) (instruments) a reference to a law includes regulations and instruments made under it;

- (h) (amendments to legislation) a reference to a law or a provision of a law includes amendments, re-enactments or replacements of that law or the provision, whether by a State or the Commonwealth or otherwise;
- (i) (include) the words include, includes, including and for example are not to be interpreted as words of limitation;
- (j) (signed) where, by a provision of this Constitution, a document including a notice is required to be signed, that requirement may be satisfied in relation to an electronic communication of the document in any manner permitted by law or by any State or Commonwealth law relating to electronic transmissions or in any other manner approved by the Directors;
- (k) (writing) writing and written includes printing, typing and other modes of reproducing words in a visible form including, without limitation, any representation of words in a physical document or in an electronic communication or form or otherwise; and
- (l) (headings) headings are inserted for convenience and do not affect the interpretation of this Constitution.

1.3. Corporations Act

- (a) In this Constitution, unless the context requires otherwise, an expression has, in a provision of this Constitution that deals with a matter dealt with by a particular provision of the Corporations Act, the same meaning as in that provision of the Corporations Act.
- (b) The provisions of the Corporations Act that apply as replaceable rules are displaced by this Constitution and accordingly do not apply to the Company.

2. OBJECTS

IFAF is the sole international sporting authority entitled to make and enforce regulations for the encouragement and control of American Football to its members. So that the above authority may be exercised in a fair and equitable manner, IFAF has drawn up Statutes and Regulations governing American Football.

Each national federation, including the Company belonging to IFAF, shall be presumed to acquiesce in and be bound by the Statutes and Regulations. Subject to such acquiescence and restraint, one single national federation per country shall be recognised by IFAF as the sole international sporting power for the enforcement of the present Statutes and Regulations and control of American Football in its own country. The Company has been so recognised by IFAF and delegated by IFAF with exercising the Sporting Power for Australia.

The ASC is the Australian Government's statutory authority responsible for developing and funding Australian sport, which recognises National Sporting Organisations.

The Objects of the Company shall be to:

- (a) be recognised by the ASC as the NSO for the Sport;
- (b) adopt and exercise the Sporting Power as the national federation for the Sport in Australia and to act as the sole Australian affiliated member of IFAF in accordance with the Statutes and Regulations;
- (c) conduct, encourage, promote, advance, control and manage all levels of American Football in Australia interdependently with Members and others;
- (d) adopt, formulate, issue, interpret and amend Policies for the control and conduct of American Football in Australia;
- (e) encourage the provision and development of appropriate facilities for participation in American Football;

- (f) maintain and enhance standards, quality and reputation of American Football for the collective and mutual benefit and interests of members and American Football;
- (g) promote the sport of American Football for commercial, government and public recognition and benefits;
- (h) be the only body entitled to prepare and enter Australian teams in international Sport competitions;
- (i) promote, control, manage and conduct American Football events, competitions and championships;
- (j) encourage and promote widespread participation in American Football and physical activity;
- (k) use and promote the Intellectual Property;
- (l) have regard to the public interest in its operations; and
- (m) undertake other actions or activities necessary, incidental or conducive to advance these Objects.

3. POWERS

Solely for furthering the Objects under clause 2, the Company, in addition to the Sporting Power and any other powers it has under the Corporations Act, has the legal capacity and powers of a company limited by guarantee as set out under section 124 of the Corporations Act.

4. INCOME AND PROPERTY OF COMPANY

4.1. Sole Purpose

The income and property of the Company will only be applied towards the promotion of the Objects of the Company.

4.2. Payments to Members

No income or property will be paid or transferred directly or indirectly to any Member except for payments to a Member:

- (a) in return for any services rendered or goods supplied in the ordinary and usual course of business to the Company; or
- (b) of interest at a rate not exceeding current bank overdraft rates of interest for moneys lent; or
- (c) of reasonable rent for premises let to the Company by them.

5. MEMBERSHIP

5.1. Categories of Members

Members of the Company shall fall into one of the following categories:

- (a) Individual Members, who are not entitled to receive notice of, attend or vote at General Meetings; or
- (b) Incorporated Members, who are legal entities that have a relationship with the Company. These Members fall into the following categories:

- (i) Affiliate Members, which subject to this Constitution shall have the right to receive notice of, attend and vote at General Meetings; and
- (ii) Associate Members, which are not entitled to receive notice of, attend or vote at General Meetings; or
- (c) such other category of Member as may be created by the Directors. Any category of Member created by the Directors under this clause 5.1(c) may not be granted voting rights.

5.2. Individual Members

- (a) A person will become an Individual Member, and the Directors will direct the Company Secretary to record their name, street address, email address and date on which they became a Member, in the register of Members kept by the Company, only upon meeting the criteria applicable to the relevant category of membership set out in this Constitution or under Policy and provided the Member has submitted an application, which is accepted by the Directors, in which the Member undertakes to:
 - (i) be bound by this Constitution, the Statutes and Regulations and the Policies (including Policies specific to the relevant category of Membership);
 - (ii) pay the fees and subscriptions determined to apply to the Member under clause 9; and
 - (iii) support the Company in the encouragement and promotion of its Objects.
- (b) The Secretary and Directors may make use of automated systems to register and accept Members and their applications.
- (c) An Individual Member is entitled to any benefits of membership prescribed to apply to Individual Members in the Policies.

- (d) An Individual Member will not be deemed to be associated with an Affiliate Member unless they choose to be.

5.3. Affiliate Members

- (a) Affiliate Members are the only Member class that may vote at a General Meeting.
- (b) The Company may recognise Legal Entities that have a shared interest in the objects of the Company as Affiliate Members. Recognised Affiliate Members will have a distinct geographic and/or functional scope of their activities. These Affiliate Members will be tasked with carrying out the objects of the Company within their assigned scope.
 - (i) A State Body is an Affiliate Member where the scope of the Affiliate Member is based on geography. A State Body may also be a League, but may not be a Club.
 - (ii) A Functional Body is an Affiliate Member where the scope of the Affiliate Member is based on a functional aspect of the sport. It may not be a Club.
- (c) Where the scopes of Affiliate Members overlap, they will work together. The Directors will provide clarity of scope if required by way of Policy.
- (d) Notwithstanding clause 5.3(a) and 5.3(b), the Company may allow Clubs and Leagues to associate with and be administered by an Affiliate Member with overlapping Geographic or Functional Scope.
- (e) Each Affiliate Member will:
 - (i) have objects that align with those of the Company as stated in clause 2 and do all that is reasonably necessary to enable the Objects to be achieved, having regard to any legislation applicable to that Affiliate Member;
 - (ii) effectively promulgate and enforce the Constitution and Policies of the Company and the Statutes and Regulations;

- (iii) at all times act for and on behalf of the interests of the Company, the Members and American Football;
- (iv) be responsible and accountable to the Company for fulfilling its obligations under the Company's strategic plan as revised from time to time;
- (v) provide the Company with copies of its audited accounts, annual report and associated documents immediately following its Annual General Meeting;
- (vi) provide the Company with copies of its business plans and budgets from time to time and within 14 days of request by the Directors;
- (vii) be bound by this Constitution and the Policies and the Statutes and Regulations;
- (viii) act in good faith and loyalty to maintain and enhance the Company and American Football, its standards, quality and reputation for the collective and mutual benefit of the Members and American Football;
- (ix) at all times operate with and promote mutual trust and confidence between the Company and the Members, promoting the economic and sporting success, strength and stability of each other and work cooperatively with each other in the pursuit of the Objects;
- (x) maintain a database of all clubs, officials and members Registered with it in accordance with the Policies and provide a copy to the Company upon request from time to time by the Directors in such means as may be required;
- (xi) not do or permit to be done any act or thing which might adversely affect or derogate from the standards, quality and reputation of American Football and its maintenance and development; and
- (xii) advise the Company as soon as practicable of any serious administrative, operational or financial difficulties, assist the Company in investigating those issues and cooperate with the Company in addressing those issues in whatever manner, including by:

- (A) allowing the Company to appoint an administrator to conduct and manage its business and affairs; or
- (B) allowing the Company itself to conduct all or part of the business or affairs of the relevant Affiliate Member, and on such conditions as the Company considers appropriate.

(f) Constitutions of Affiliate Members

- (i) Each Affiliate Member shall take all steps necessary to ensure its constituent documents conform, and amendments conform, with this Constitution and the Policies, subject to any prohibition or inconsistency in any legislation applicable to that Affiliate Member.
- (ii) The constituent documents and any proposed amendments to the constituent documents of each Affiliate Member shall be subject to the approval of the Company.
- (iii) It shall be the duty of the Company to approve, without delay, such constituent documents and proposed amendments to constituent documents as may be submitted by the Affiliate Member provided that the said constituent documents and proposed amendments conform to this Constitution or the Policies.
- (iv) If the constituent documents do not conform to this Constitution or the Policies, the relevant Affiliate Member shall, without delay, take all steps necessary to address the inconsistency so that those documents conform to this Constitution and the Policies.
- (v) For the avoidance of doubt, if any inconsistency remains between the constituent documents of an Affiliate Member and this Constitution or the Policies, this Constitution and the Policies shall prevail to the extent of that inconsistency.

- (vi) The constituent documents of an Affiliate Member must require the Affiliate Member to:
 - (A) advise the Company as soon as practicable of any serious administrative, operational or financial difficulties the Affiliate Member is having;
 - (B) assist the Company in investigating those issues; and
 - (C) cooperate with the Company in addressing those issues in whatever manner, including by allowing the Company to appoint an administrator to conduct and manage the Affiliate Member's business and affairs, or to allow the Company itself to conduct all or part of the business or affairs of the Affiliate Member and on such conditions as the Company considers appropriate.

- (g) The Directors may develop and implement Policies which may set out the membership criteria to be met by Affiliate Member and the privileges and benefits of Affiliate Member membership in addition to those set out in this Constitution.

5.4. Associate Members

- (a) Only a legal entity may become an Associate Member.
- (b) No Associate Member shall be registered with the Company as an Associate Member respectively except in accordance with this clause 5.4. The Company may at its discretion refuse to accept an Associate Member and shall not be required or compelled to provide any reason for such rejection.
- (c) Subject to clause 5.4(b), upon meeting the criteria applicable to the relevant category of membership set out in this Constitution or under Policy and provided the Member has submitted an application, which is accepted by the Directors, in which the Member undertakes to:
 - (i) be bound by this Constitution, the Statutes and Regulations and the Policies (including Policies specific to the relevant category of Membership);

- (ii) pay the fees and subscriptions determined to apply to the Member under clause 9; and
- (iii) support the Company in the encouragement and promotion of its Objects.
- (d) In order to become an Associate Member, a legal entity must submit an application accompanied by an up-to-date copy of that legal entity's constituent documents.
- (e) Associate Membership may be granted by the Directors in respect of an application made under clause 5.4(d) on such terms and conditions as the Directors may see fit.
- (f) Associate Membership may be suspended or cancelled by the Directors provided that the Directors comply with the procedure set out in the relevant Policy.
- (g) The Policies will set out:
 - (i) the categories of Associate Membership that exist;
 - (ii) the criteria to be met by each category of Associate Member;
 - (iii) the privileges and benefits of each category of Associate Member in addition to those set out in this Constitution; and
 - (iv) the procedure for suspending or cancelling Associate Membership.

5.5. General

- (a) The Company must keep a register of all Members in accordance with the Corporations Act.
- (b) No Member whose membership ceases has any claim against the Company or the Directors for damages or otherwise arising from cessation or termination of membership.

- (c) Membership is specific to each Member. No Member shall, or purport to, assign the rights comprising or associated with membership to any other person or entity and any attempt to do so shall be void.
- (d) A Member must treat all staff, contractors and representatives of the Company with respect and courtesy at all times.
- (e) A Member must not act in a manner unbecoming of a Member or prejudicial to the Objects and interests of the Company or the Sport, or both.

5.6. Limited Liability

Members have no liability in that capacity except as set out in clause 25.

6. CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP

6.1. Cessation

- (a) An Individual Member ceases to be a Member on:
 - (i) resignation;
 - (ii) death;
 - (iii) the termination of their membership according to this Constitution or the Policies; or
 - (iv) no longer meeting the requirements for membership according to clause 5.
- (b) An Associate Member ceases to be a Member on:
 - (i) resignation;

- (ii) being dissolved or otherwise ceasing to exist;
 - (iii) the termination of their membership according to this Constitution or the Policies; or
 - (iv) no longer meeting the requirements for membership according to clause 5.
- (c) An Affiliate Member ceases to be a Member on:
- (i) being dissolved or otherwise ceasing to exist;
 - (ii) that Member being allowed to resign under clause 6.2(b), or
 - (iii) ceasing to be a Member in accordance with clause 8.

6.2. Resignation

- (a) For the purposes of clause 6.1(a) and clause 6.1(b), an Individual Member or Associate Member may resign as a member of the Company by giving 14 days written notice to the Directors.
- (b) For the purposes of clause 6.1(c) where an Affiliated Member seeks to resign as a member of the Company the written request must be accompanied by a copy of the special resolution passed by the Affiliated Members resolving that the Affiliated Member resign from the Company. The resignation will only occur if Directors resolve to accept it, which they are not required to do.

6.3. Forfeiture of Rights

A Member who or which ceases to be a Member shall forfeit all right in and claim upon the Company or the Directors for damages or otherwise, or claim upon its property including the Intellectual Property.

7. GRIEVANCES AND DISCIPLINE OF MEMBERS

7.1. Jurisdiction

All Members will be subject to, and submit unreservedly to, the jurisdiction, procedures, penalties and appeal mechanisms of the Company whether under the Policies or under this Constitution.

7.2. Policies

- (a) The Directors may make a Policy or Policies:
 - (i) for the hearing and determination of:
 - (A) grievances by any Member who feels aggrieved by a decision or action of the Company (or Affiliate Member); and
 - (B) disputes between Members relating to the conduct or administration of American Football;
 - (ii) for the discipline of Members;
 - (iii) for the formation and administration of an appeals tribunal which must be independent of any party before it on the matter which is the subject of the appeal in question; and
 - (iv) for the termination of Members (except in respect of Affiliate Members).
- (b) The Directors in their sole discretion may refer an allegation (which in the opinion of the Directors is not vexatious, trifling or frivolous) by a complainant (including a Director or a Member) that a Member has:
 - (i) breached, failed, refused or neglected to comply with a provision of this Constitution, the Policies or any other resolution or determination of the Directors or any duly authorised Committee; or

- (ii) acted in a manner unbecoming of a Member or prejudicial to the Objects and interests of the Company or American Football, or both; or
- (iii) prejudiced the Company or American Football or brought the Company or American Football or themselves into disrepute, for investigation or determination either under the procedures set down in the Policies or by such other procedure and/or persons as the Directors consider appropriate.

- (c) During investigatory or disciplinary proceedings under this clause 7, a respondent may not participate in American Football, pending the determination of such proceedings (including any available appeal) unless the Directors decide continued participation is appropriate having regard to the matter at hand.
- (d) The Directors may include in any Policy or Policies a final right of appeal to an independent body outside the control of the Sport.

8. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP OF AN AFFILIATE MEMBER

8.1. Sanctions for Discipline of Affiliate Members

Without limiting matters that may be referred to in the Policies, any Affiliate Member that is determined by the Directors to have acted in a manner set out in clause 7.2(b) shall be liable for the sanctions set out in that Policy, including termination of Membership (which shall only take place in accordance with the procedure set out in this clause 8).

8.2. Termination of Membership of Affiliate Members

- (a) No recommendation can be made by the Directors under this clause 8 unless all avenues of appeal available to the relevant Affiliate Member under the Policies have been exhausted.

- (b) Subject to compliance with clause 8.2(a) (and the Policies), the Directors may recommend to a General Meeting to terminate the membership of an Affiliate Member.
- (c) Upon recommendation from the Directors under clause 8.2(b), a General Meeting may, by Special Resolution, terminate the membership of an Affiliate Member.
- (d) Where the membership of an Affiliate Member is terminated in accordance with this clause 8.2, the Directors may admit another body, which meets the requirements in clause 5.3(a), as the Affiliate Member with similar scope.

9. FEES AND SUBSCRIPTIONS

9.1. Membership Fee

- (a) The Directors must determine from time to time:
 - (i) the amount (if any) payable by an applicant for membership;
 - (ii) the amount of the annual subscription fee payable by each Member, or any category of Members;
 - (iii) any other amount to be paid by each Member, or any category of Members, whether of a recurrent or any other nature; and
 - (iv) the payment method and the due date for payment.
- (b) Each Member must pay to the Company the amounts determined under this clause 9 in accordance with clause 9.1(a)(iv).

9.2. Non-Payment of Fees

Subject to clause 5.3(a), the right of a Member to attend and vote at a General Meeting is suspended while the payment of any subscription or other amount determined under clause 9 is in arrears greater than 90 days.

9.3. Deferral or reduction of subscriptions

- (a) The Directors may defer the obligations of a Member to pay a subscription or other amount, or reduce (including to zero) the subscription or other amount payable by a Member, if the Directors are satisfied that:
 - (i) there are reasonable grounds for doing so;
 - (ii) the Company will not be materially disadvantaged as a result; and
 - (iii) the Member agrees to pay the deferred or (if greater than zero) the reduced subscription or other amount within a time fixed by the Directors.
- (b) If the Directors defer or reduce a subscription or other amount payable by a Member under this clause 9.3, that Member will retain their rights to attend and vote at a General Meeting, unless otherwise specified by the Directors.

10. GENERAL MEETINGS

10.1. Annual General Meeting

AGMs of the Company are to be held:

- (a) according to the Corporations Act; and
- (b) at a date and venue determined by the Directors.

10.2. Power to convene General Meeting

- (a) The Directors may convene a General Meeting when they think fit and must do so if required by the Corporations Act.
- (b) The Voting Members may convene a General Meeting in accordance with the Corporations Act.

10.3. Notice of a General Meeting

- (a) Notice of a General Meeting of Members must be given:
 - (i) to all Members entitled to attend the General Meeting, the Directors, and the auditor of the Company; and
 - (ii) in accordance with clause 23 and the Corporations Act.
- (b) At least 45 days prior to the proposed date of the AGM, the Secretary will request from Voting Members notices of motions, which must be received no less than 28 days prior to the AGM.
- (c) At least 21 days' notice of the time and place of a General Meeting must be given, together with:
 - (i) all information required to be included in accordance with the Corporations Act;
 - (ii) in the case of a proposed Special Resolution, the intention to propose the Special Resolution and the terms of the proposed Special Resolution;
 - (iii) where applicable, any notice of motion received from any Voting Member or Director in accordance with the Corporations Act; and
 - (iv) where applicable, a list of all nominations received for positions to be elected at the relevant General Meeting.

10.4. No other business

No business other than that stated in the notice of meeting may be transacted at a General Meeting.

10.5. Cancellation or postponement of General Meeting

Where a General Meeting (including an AGM) is convened by the Directors they may, if they think fit, cancel the meeting or postpone the meeting to a date and time they determine. This clause does not apply to a General Meeting convened by:

- (a) Members according to the Corporations Act;
- (b) the Directors at the request of Members; or
- (c) a court.

10.6. Written notice of cancellation or postponement of General Meeting

Notice of the cancellation or postponement of a General Meeting must state the reasons for doing so and be given to:

- (a) each Member entitled to attend the General Meeting; and
- (b) each other person entitled to notice of a General Meeting under the Corporations Act.

10.7. Contents of notice postponing General Meeting

A notice postponing a General Meeting must specify:

- (a) the new date and time for the meeting;
- (b) the place where the meeting is to be held, which may be either the same as or different to the place specified in the notice originally convening the meeting; and

- (c) if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to hold the meeting in that manner.

10.8. Number of clear days for postponement of General Meeting

The number of clear days from the giving of a notice postponing a General Meeting to the date specified in that notice for the postponed meeting must not be less than the number of clear days' notice of that General Meeting required to be given by clause 11.8 or the Corporations Act.

10.9. Business at postponed General Meeting

The only business that may be transacted at a postponed General Meeting is the business specified in the notice originally convening the meeting.

10.10. Representative, proxy or attorney at postponed General Meeting

Where:

- (a) by the terms of an instrument appointing a Representative, proxy or attorney that appointed person is authorised to attend and vote at a General Meeting on behalf of the appointing Member to be held on a specified date or at a General Meeting or General Meetings to be held on or before a specified date; and
- (b) the date for the meeting is postponed to a date later than the date specified in the instrument, then that later date is substituted for the date specified in the instrument appointing that appointed person, unless the appointing Member notifies the Company in writing to the contrary at least 48 hours before the time at which the postponed meeting is to be held.

10.11. Non-receipt of notice

The non-receipt of a notice convening, cancelling or postponing a General Meeting by, or the accidental omission to give a notice of that kind to, a person entitled to receive it, does not invalidate any resolution passed at the General Meeting or at a postponed meeting or the cancellation or postponement of the meeting.

10.12. Right to appoint representative

- (a) In accordance with the Corporations Act, each Voting Member is entitled to appoint an individual as their Representative to attend General Meetings, provided that the Voting Member has not appointed a proxy under clause 10.13, and to exercise the powers of the Voting Member in relation to resolutions to be passed without meetings.
- (b) A Voting Member may appoint more than one Representative but only one Representative may exercise the Voting Member's powers at any one time.
- (c) In addition to each Voting Member's appointed Representative, each Voting Member shall be entitled to appoint one further representative to attend meetings on their behalf but not vote.

10.13. Right to appoint proxy

- (a) A Voting Member entitled to attend a General Meeting of the Company is entitled to appoint a person as their proxy to attend the meeting in their place in accordance with the Corporations Act.
- (b) A proxy may be revoked by the appointing Member at any time by notice in writing to the Company.

10.14. Form of proxy

The instrument appointing a proxy may be in form determined by the Directors from time to time provided it complies with the requirements under the Corporations Act.

10.15. Attorney of Member

A Member may appoint an attorney to act on the Member's behalf at all or any meetings of the Company.

10.16. Lodgement of proxy or attorney documents

- (a) A proxy or Attorney may vote at a General Meeting or an adjourned or postponed meeting (as the case may be) only if the instrument appointing the proxy or attorney, and the original or a certified copy of the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which the instrument is signed, are received by the Company:
 - (i) at the office, the facsimile number at the office or at such other place, facsimile number or electronic address specified for that purpose in the notice of meeting; and
 - (ii) at least 48 hours before the scheduled commencement time for the meeting or adjourned or postponed meeting (as the case may be) at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote. The scheduled commencement time is as specified in the notice of meeting.
- (b) An undated proxy is taken to be dated on the day that it is received by the Company.

10.17. Authority given by appointment

- (a) Unless the terms of the appointment specify to the contrary, an appointment by a Voting Member confers authority on a proxy, attorney or Representative:
 - (i) to agree to a General Meeting being convened by shorter notice than is required by the Corporations Act or by this Constitution;
 - (ii) to speak to any proposed resolution; and
 - (iii) to demand or join in demanding a poll on any resolution.

- (b) Unless the terms of the appointment specify to the contrary, even if the instrument of appointment refers to specific resolutions and directs the proxy, attorney or Representative on how to vote on those resolutions, the appointment is taken to confer authority:
 - (i) to vote on any amendment moved to the proposed resolutions and on any motion that the proposed resolutions not be put or any similar motion;
 - (ii) to vote on any procedural motion; and
 - (iii) to act generally at the meeting.

- (c) Unless the terms of the appointment specify to the contrary, if the instrument of appointment refers to a specific meeting to be held at a specified time or venue and the meeting is postponed or adjourned or changed to another venue, then the appointment confers authority to attend and vote:
 - (i) at the postponed or adjourned meeting; or
 - (ii) at the new venue.

- (d) An appointment of a proxy may be a standing proxy — that is, the appointment under the proxy remains valid until it is revoked by the Voting Member that made the appointment.

- (e) The instrument appointing a proxy may provide for the Chairperson to act as proxy in the absence of any other appointment or if the person or persons nominated fails or fail to attend the meeting.

- (f) The instrument appointing a proxy may direct the manner in which the proxy is to vote in respect of a particular resolution.

- (g) If a proxy is appointed to vote on a particular resolution by more than one Voting Member and the instruments appointing the proxy direct the proxy to vote on the resolution in different ways, then the proxy must not vote on a show of hands taken on the resolution.

10.18. Directors may attend

An existing Director is entitled to receive notice of and attend a General Meeting regardless of whether they have been appointed as a proxy or Voting Members representative.

11. PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETING

11.1. Number for a quorum

The number of Voting Members who must be present and eligible to vote for a quorum to exist at a General Meeting is four (4).

11.2. Requirement for a quorum

An item of business may not be transacted at a General Meeting unless a quorum is present at the commencement of, and remains throughout, the General Meeting.

11.3. Quorum and time

If, within 30 minutes after the time appointed for a General Meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting:

- (a) if convened by, or on requisition of, Members, is dissolved; and
- (b) in any other case stands adjourned to such other day, time and place as the chair determines.

11.4. Adjourned meeting

If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the adjourned meeting, those members then present shall constitute a quorum.

11.5. Chairperson to preside over General Meetings

- (a) The Chairperson is entitled to preside as chair at General Meetings.
- (b) If a General Meeting is convened and there is no Chairperson, or the Chairperson is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, or is unable or unwilling to act, the following may preside as chair (in order of entitlement):
 - (i) the Deputy Chairperson;
 - (ii) a Director (or other person) chosen by a majority of the Directors present;
 - (iii) the only Director present; or
 - (iv) a Representative of a Voting Member who is entitled to vote and is chosen by a majority of the Voting Members present.

11.6. Conduct of General Meetings

- (a) The chair:
 - (i) has charge of the general conduct of the meeting and of the procedures to be adopted;
 - (ii) may require the adoption of any procedure which in his or her opinion is necessary or desirable for proper and orderly debate or discussion or the proper and orderly casting or recording of votes; and

(iii) may, having regard where necessary to the Corporations Act, terminate discussion or debate on any matter whenever he or she considers it necessary or desirable for the proper conduct of the meeting.

(b) A decision by the chair under this clause 11.6 is final.

11.7. Adjournment of General Meeting

(a) The chair may, with the consent of any General Meeting at which a quorum is present, and must if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting or any business, motion, question, resolution, debate or discussion being considered or remaining to be considered by the meeting.

(b) The adjournment may be either to a later time at the same meeting or to an adjourned meeting at any time and place agreed by vote of the members present.

(c) Only unfinished business is to be transacted at a meeting resumed after an adjournment.

11.8. Notice of adjourned meeting

(a) It is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting unless a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more.

(b) In that case, at least the same period of notice as was originally required for the meeting must be given for the adjourned meeting.

11.9. Questions decided by majority

Subject to the requirements of the Corporations Act and except in the case of a Special Resolution, a resolution is carried if a simple majority of the votes cast on the resolution are in favour of it.

11.10. Equality of votes

Where an equal number of votes are cast in favour of and against the resolution, the resolution is not carried.

11.11. Declaration of results

- (a) At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is properly demanded and the demand is not withdrawn.
- (b) A declaration by the chair that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meetings of the Company, is conclusive evidence of the fact.
- (c) Neither the chair nor the minutes need state, and it is not necessary to prove, the number or proportion of the votes recorded for or against the resolution.

11.12. Poll

- (a) If a poll is properly demanded in accordance with the Corporations Act or by the chair of the meeting, it must be taken in the manner and at the date and time directed by the chair, and the result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (b) A poll demanded on the election of a chair or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.
- (c) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- (d) A demand for a poll does not prevent the General Meeting continuing for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded.

11.13. Objection to voting qualification

- (a) An objection to the right of a person to attend or vote at a General Meeting (including an adjourned meeting):
 - (i) may not be raised except at that meeting; and
 - (ii) must be referred to the chair, whose decision is final.
- (b) A vote not disallowed under the objection is valid for all purposes.

11.14. Chair to determine any poll dispute

If there is a dispute about the admission or rejection of a vote, the chair must decide it and the chair's decision made is final.

11.15. Electronic voting

Voting by electronic communication at General Meetings may be permitted from time to time in such instances as the Directors may determine and shall be held in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Directors.

12. VOTES OF MEMBERS

12.1. Votes of Members

- (a) At a General Meeting, on a show of hands and on a poll, each of the Voting Members shall have the votes set out in this clause 12.1.
- (b) Each Affiliate Member will receive one vote.
- (c) No Member other than Affiliate Members shall be entitled to vote at General Meetings.

- (d) Directors do not vote at General Meetings except in a capacity representing a Voting Member.

12.2. Election of Directors

Elections for Elected Directors shall be by ballot in accordance with this clause 12.2 at the relevant General Meeting on papers prepared by the Secretary. Elected Directors are formally nominated according to clause 13.4 or from the floor of the General Meeting according to clause 12.2(c). The order of conducting the election is as follows:

- (a) Where the Chairperson has been formally nominated under clause 13.4(c), a yes/no vote will be conducted with the Chairperson being returned as an Elected Director upon receiving a majority of yes votes. If returned, any nomination for the Chairperson under clause 13.4(b) will lapse.
- (b) The remaining formal nominations under clause 13.4(b) will be considered under clause 12.2(e).
- (c) If there remains vacancies for Elected Directors, nominations from the floor will be accepted provided they are in accordance with clause 13.4(b) or clause 13.4(c) and in either case agreed by the nominee. An Affiliate Member may not nominate additional Directors if they have already had a Director Elected under clause 13.4(b). All nominations received will be considered under clause 12.2(e).
- (d) Any remaining vacancies for Elected Directors will be held over to a Directors meeting and may be filled as a casual vacancy under clause 13.9.
- (e) The ballot for an election to fill one or more Elected Director positions will be conducted in accordance with the following procedure:
 - (i) if the number of eligible nominees is equal to or less than the number of positions to be filled, then no election is to take place and those eligible nominees will be taken to be elected to fill one or more of the Elected Director positions; and

- (ii) if there are more eligible nominees than the number of positions to be filled, a yes/no ballot will be conducted as a poll against each nominee, and eligible nominee/s who receive the highest number of yes votes will be elected to fill the Elected Director positions in order. This procedure expires when all Elected Director positions are filled. If two or more nominees get the same number of yes votes and at the relevant time there are insufficient available positions for all of them, then the Secretary is to draw the names of those nominees by lot. Those nominees are to be elected as Elected Directors.

12.3. Resolutions not in General Meeting

- (a) If all Members entitled to vote sign a document containing a statement that they are in favour of a resolution in terms set out in the document, a resolution in those terms is deemed to have been passed at a General Meeting of the Company held at the time on which the document was signed by the last Member entitled to vote.
- (b) For the purposes of clause 12.3(a), two or more separate documents containing statements in identical terms, each of which is signed by one or more Members entitled to vote, are deemed together to constitute one document containing a statement in those terms signed by those Members on the respective days on which they signed the separate documents.
- (c) A facsimile transmission or other form of visible or other electronic communication under the name of a Member is deemed to be a document in writing signed by that Member for the purpose of this clause.

13. DIRECTORS

13.1. Number of Directors

- (a) There must be not less than five (5) Directors and not more than eleven (11) Directors.

- (b) Subject to clause 13.1(a), not more than nine (9) Elected Directors are to be elected by the Voting Members under clause 12.2 or filled as a casual vacancy under clause 13.9, and not more than two (2) Appointed Directors are to be appointed by the Directors under clause 13.10.

13.2. <DELETED>

13.3. Eligibility

- (a) For the period from the date of this Constitution a person who:
 - (i) is an employee of the Company or an Affiliate Member; or
 - (ii) was a Director of the Company and clause 13.8 applies,(each a disqualifying position) may not hold office as a Director.
- (b) A Director who accepts a disqualifying position must notify the other Directors of that fact immediately and is deemed to have vacated office as a Director.
- (c) A person elected or appointed as a Director at the time of holding a disqualifying position must resign from that disqualifying position within 30 days.
- (d) No person shall be eligible to stand for an Elected Director position if, during the proposed term of office, they would be in breach of clause 13.8.
- (e) The Directors may determine position or role descriptions or necessary qualifications for Director positions.

13.4. Nomination for election

- (a) At least 45 days prior to the proposed date of the Annual General Meeting at which a resolution or resolutions will be proposed to fill a vacancy in an Elected Director position, the Secretary will request from Affiliate Members nominations (which comply with this clause 13.4) for elections to positions falling vacant, which must be received no less than 14 days prior to the AGM.
- (b) Each Affiliate Member has the opportunity to nominate one person to an Elected Director position. Ideally this person will not hold an Official Position with the Affiliate Member.
- (c) Each Affiliate Member has the additional opportunity to nominate the current Chairperson to an Elected Director position.
- (d) A nomination must:
 - (i) be in the form required by the Directors; and
 - (ii) signed by the nominator and nominee.

13.5. Term of office of Directors generally

Subject to clauses 13.7, 13.8 and 13.9, an Elected Director will hold office for a term of one year.

13.6. Office held until end of meeting

A retiring Elected Director holds office until the end of the meeting at which that Elected Director retires but, subject to the requirement of this Constitution, including clause 13.8, is eligible for re-election.

13.7. Elected Director elected at General Meeting

- (a) At a General Meeting:
 - (i) at which an Elected Director retires; or
 - (ii) at the commencement of which there is a vacancy in the office of an Elected Director, there will be a vote of the Members conducted in accordance with clause 12.2 to fill the vacancy by electing someone to that office.

- (b) Subject to clauses 13.7(c), 13.8 and 13.13, an Elected Director elected under this clause 13.7 takes office at the end of the meeting at which they are elected for the remainder of the term of office for the position that they are filling.

13.8. Maximum consecutive years in office for Directors

- (a) A Director must not serve more than ten consecutive years as a Director, including where one or more of the years is as an Appointed Director.
- (b) For the purpose of clause 13.8(a), where service:
 - (i) by a person as a Director under this Constitution is for a period less than three years:
 - (A) if the service is less than one year, it will be treated as one full year;
 - (B) if the service is between one year and two years, it will be treated as two full years;
 - (C) if the service is between two years and three years, it will be treated as three full years; and

- (ii) by a person as a Director takes place immediately before the adoption of this Constitution, the number of consecutive years of service by that person before the adoption of this Constitution will be treated as service towards clause 13.8(a), rounded up to the nearest full year.
- (c) A Director who has served the maximum number of years in accordance with clause 13.8(a) shall not be eligible to be a Director for three years following the completion of their maximum term.

13.9. Casual vacancy in ranks of Elected Directors

- (a) The Directors may at any time appoint a person to fill a casual vacancy (as defined in clause 13.14) in the rank of the Elected Directors.
- (b) A person appointed under clause 13.9(a) holds office for the remainder of the vacating Director's term and, subject to this Constitution, they may offer themselves for re- election.

13.10. Appointed Directors

- (a) In addition to the Elected Directors, the Directors may themselves appoint up to two persons to be Directors because of their special business acumen and/or technical skills. These persons will be known as the "Appointed Directors".
- (b) Subject to clauses 13.8 and 13.13, an Appointed Director holds office for a term determined by the Directors not to exceed three years and the appointment will be on such other terms as the Directors determine.
- (c) A person may only serve six consecutive years as an Appointed Director but, subject to the other requirements of this Constitution, in particular clause 13.8, are otherwise eligible to be elected to an Elected Director position.
- (d) Subject to this Constitution, the Directors may at any time appoint a person to fill a casual vacancy (as defined in clause 13.14) in the rank of the Appointed Directors on whatever terms the Directors decide.

13.11. Remuneration of Directors

Subject to clause 13.12, a Director must not be paid for services as a Director but, with the approval of the Directors and subject to the Corporations Act, may be:

- (a) paid by the Company for services rendered to it other than as a Director; and
- (b) reimbursed by the Company for their reasonable travelling, accommodation and other expenses when:
 - (i) travelling to or from meetings of the Directors, a Committee or the Company; or
 - (ii) otherwise engaged in the affairs of the Company.

13.12. Honorarium

The Company may in General Meeting by ordinary resolution determine to pay a Director an ex-gratia payment.

13.13. Removal of Director

- (a) A Director may be removed by the Members in accordance with the Corporations Act.
- (b) Unless otherwise resolved at a General Meeting, a Director removed in accordance with clause 13.13(a) cannot be re-appointed as a Director within three years of their removal.

13.14. Vacation of office

The office of a Director becomes vacant when the Corporations Act says it does and also if the Director:

- (a) dies;

- (b) is removed in accordance with clause 13.13;
- (c) becomes of unsound mind or a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under a law relating to mental health;
- (d) resigns from office by notice in writing to the Company;
- (e) accepts appointment to, or becomes the holder of, a disqualifying position as set out in clause 13.3 and does not resign from that position within 30 days;
- (f) is not present at three consecutive Directors' meetings without leave of absence from the Directors; or
- (g) is directly or indirectly interested in any contract or proposed contract with the Company and fails to declare the nature of the interest as required by the Act.

13.15. Alternate Director

A Director cannot appoint an alternate.

14. POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

14.1. Directors to manage the Company

The Directors are to manage the Company's business and may exercise those of the Company's powers that are not required, by the Corporations Act or by this Constitution, to be exercised by the Company in General Meeting.

14.2. Specific powers of Directors

Without limiting clause 14.1, the Directors may exercise all the Company's powers to borrow or raise money, to charge any property or business or give any other security for a debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any other person.

14.3. Time, etc

Subject to the Corporations Act, where this Constitution requires that something be done by a particular time, or within a particular period, or that an event is to occur or a circumstance is to change on or by a particular date, the Directors may at their absolute discretion extend that time, period or date as they think fit.

14.4. Appointment of attorney

The Directors may appoint any person to be the Company's attorney for the purposes, with the powers, authorities and discretions, for the period and subject to the conditions they think fit.

14.5. Provisions in power of attorney

A power of attorney granted under clause 14.4 may contain any provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with the attorney that the Directors think fit and may also authorise the attorney to delegate (including by way of appointment of a substitute attorney) all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions of the attorney.

14.6. Delegation of powers

- (a) Without limiting clause 17.4 the Directors may, by resolution or by power of attorney or writing under seal, delegate any of their powers to the Secretary or any employee of the Company or any other person as they think fit.
- (b) Any delegation by the Directors of their powers:
 - (i) must specify the powers delegated, any restrictions on, and conditions attaching to, the exercise of those powers and the period during which that delegation is to be in force;
 - (ii) may be either general or limited in any way provided in the terms of the delegation;

- (iii) need not be to a specified person but may be to any person holding, occupying or performing the duties of a specified office or position; and
 - (iv) may include the power to delegate.
- (c) If exercising a power depends on a person's opinion, belief or state of mind, then that power may be exercised by the delegate on the delegate's opinion, belief or state of mind about that matter.
- (d) Any power exercised by a delegate is as effective as if it had been exercised by the Directors.

14.7. Code of Conduct

The Directors must:

- (a) adopt a code of conduct for Directors; and
- (b) periodically review the code of conduct in light of the general principles of good corporate governance.

15. PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

15.1. Directors meetings

- (a) Subject to clause 15.1(b), the Directors may meet together for conducting business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit.
- (b) The Directors must meet at least six times in each calendar year.

15.2. Questions decided by majority

A question arising at a Directors' meeting is to be decided by a majority of votes of the Directors present in person and entitled to vote. Each Director present has one vote on a matter arising for decision by Directors.

15.3. Chair's casting vote

The chair of the meeting will not have a casting vote. The Chairman votes just as other Directors vote. A tied vote does not pass.

15.4. Quorum

Four Directors present in person constitutes a quorum.

15.5. Effect of vacancy

- (a) The continuing Directors may act despite a vacancy in their number.
- (b) However, if the number of Directors is reduced below the number required for a quorum, the remaining Directors may act only for the purpose of filling the vacancies to the extent necessary to bring their number up to that required for a quorum or to convene a General Meeting.

15.6. Convening meetings

- (a) A Director may, and the Secretary on the request of a Director must, convene a Directors' meeting.
- (b) Notice of a meeting of Directors must be given individually to each Director (except a Director on leave of absence approved by the Directors). Notice of a meeting of Directors may be given in person, or by post or by telephone, facsimile or other electronic means.

- (c) A Director may waive notice of a meeting of Directors by giving notice to that effect to the Company in person or by post or by telephone, facsimile or other electronic means.
- (d) A person who attends a meeting of Directors waives any objection that person may have in relation to a failure to give notice of the meeting.
- (e) The non-receipt of a notice of a meeting of the Directors or the accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to a person entitled to receive notice does not invalidate anything done (including the passing of a resolution) at a meeting of Directors.

15.7. Election of Chairperson

- (a) The Directors must at the first Directors' meeting following an AGM or a vacancy in the Chair, elect one of their number to be the Chairperson by a majority vote.
- (b) The Chairperson shall not have any official position with any Affiliate Member.
- (c) The Director elected to be Chairperson under clause 15.7(a) will, subject to remaining a Director, remain Chairperson for one year from the date of their election until the first Directors' meeting after the following AGM and shall chair any meeting of Directors.
- (d) Despite clause 15.7(b), if:
 - (i) there is no person elected as Chairperson; or
 - (ii) the Chairperson is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting; or
 - (iii) the Chairperson is unwilling to act,

the Directors present may elect one of their number to be chair of the meeting.

- (e) A Director elected as Chairperson may be re-elected as Chairperson in following years, so long as he or she remains a Director.
- (f) A Chairperson not being re-elected as Chairperson has no effect on their tenure as a Director, if any.

15.8. Deputy Chairperson

- (a) The Directors may at any time, elect one of their number to be the Deputy Chairperson by a majority vote.
- (b) The Deputy Chairperson will act in the absence of the Chairperson to ensure the prompt and continued functioning of the meetings and the Company.

15.9. Circulating resolutions

- (a) The Directors may pass a resolution without a Directors' meeting being held if notice in writing of the resolution is given to all Directors and a majority of the Directors entitled to vote on the resolution (not being less than the number required for a quorum at a meeting of Directors) sign a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document.
- (b) Separate copies of the document may be used for signing by the Directors if the wording of the resolution and statement is identical in each copy. A facsimile transmission or other document produced by electronic means under the name of a Director with the Director's authority is taken to be a document signed by the Director for the purposes of clause 15.8(a) and is taken to be signed when received by the Company in legible form.
- (c) The resolution is passed when the last Director signs.

15.10. Validity of acts of Directors

Everything done at a Directors' meeting or a Committee meeting, or by a person acting as a Director, is valid even if it is discovered later that there was some defect in the appointment, election or qualification of any of them or that any of them was disqualified or had vacated office.

15.11. Directors' Interests

- (a) A Director shall declare to the Directors any material personal interest or related party transaction, as defined by the Corporations Act, as soon as practicable after that Director becomes aware of their interest in the matter.
- (b) Where a Director declares a material personal interest or in the event of a related party transaction, that Director is ineligible to receive the Directors' meeting papers related to the matter, and must absent himself or herself from discussion of such matter and shall not be entitled to vote in respect of such matter unless otherwise determined by the Directors.
- (c) In the event of any uncertainty in this regard, the issue shall immediately be determined by a vote of the Directors or, if this is not possible, the matter shall be adjourned or deferred to the next meeting.
- (d) The Secretary shall maintain a register of declared interests.

15.12. Minutes

The Directors must cause minutes of meetings to be made and kept according to the Corporations Act.

16. TELECOMMUNICATION MEETINGS OF THE COMPANY

16.1. Telecommunication Meeting

- (a) A General Meeting or a Directors' Meeting may be held by means of a Telecommunication Meeting provided that:
 - (i) the number of Members or Directors (as applicable) participating is not less than a quorum required for a General Meeting or Directors' Meeting (as applicable); and
 - (ii) the meeting is convened and held in accordance with the Corporations Act.
- (b) All provisions of this Constitution relating to a meeting apply to a Telecommunication Meeting in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this clause 16.

16.2. Conduct of Telecommunication Meeting

The following provisions apply to a Telecommunication Meeting of the Company:

- (a) all persons participating in the meeting must be linked by telephone, audio-visual or other instantaneous means for the purpose of the meeting;
- (b) each of the persons taking part in the meeting must be able to hear and be heard by each of the other persons taking part at the commencement of the meeting and each person so taking part is deemed for the purposes of this Constitution to be present at the meeting;
- (c) at the commencement of the meeting each person must announce his or her presence to all other persons taking part in the meeting;
- (d) a person may not leave a Telecommunication Meeting by disconnecting his or her telephone, audio-visual or other communication equipment unless that person has previously notified the chair;

- (e) a person may conclusively be presumed to have been present and to have formed part of a quorum at all times during a Telecommunication Meeting unless that person has previously notified the chair of leaving the meeting; and
- (f) a minute of proceedings of a Telecommunication Meeting is sufficient evidence of the proceedings and of the observance of all necessary formalities if the minute is certified to be a correct minute by the chair.

17. <DELETED>

18. COMPANY SECRETARY

18.1. Appointment of Company Secretary

There must be at least one Company Secretary who is to be appointed by the Directors.

18.2. Suspension and removal of Company Secretary

The Directors may suspend or remove a Company Secretary from that office.

18.3. Powers, duties and authorities of Company Secretary

A Company Secretary holds office on the terms and conditions (including as to remuneration) and with the powers, duties and authorities, delegated to them by the Directors.

19. COMMITTEES

19.1. Committees

The Directors may delegate any of their powers to Committees consisting of those persons they think fit (including Directors, individuals and consultants), and may vary or revoke any delegation.

19.2. Powers delegated to Committees

- (a) A Committee must exercise the powers delegated to it according to the terms of the delegation and any directions of the Directors.
- (b) Powers delegated to and exercised by a Committee are taken to have been exercised by the Directors.

19.3. Committee meetings

Unless otherwise determined by the Directors, committee meetings are governed by the provisions of this Constitution dealing with Directors' meetings, as far as they are capable of application.

20. POLICIES

20.1. Making and amending Policies

- (a) In addition to policies made under clause 7.2, the Directors may from time to time make policies:
 - (i) that are required to be made under this Constitution; and

(ii) which in their opinion are necessary or desirable for the control, administration and management of the Company's affairs and may amend, repeal and replace those policies.

(b) The Policies referred to in clauses 7.2 and 20.1(a) take effect 7 days after the service of the Policy on the Member and shall be of force and effect on that date.

20.2. Effect of Policies

A Policy:

- (a) is subject to this Constitution;
- (b) must be consistent with this Constitution;
- (c) when in force, is binding on all Members and has the same effect as a provision in this Constitution; and
- (d) may be overruled if a resolution to that effect is passed by the Members at a General Meeting.

21. INSPECTION OF RECORDS

A Member does not have the right to inspect any document of the Company (including registers kept by the Company) except as required by law.

22. ACCOUNTS

22.1. Accounting Records

The Directors will cause proper accounting and other records to be kept and will distribute copies of financial statements as required by the Corporations Act.

22.2. Auditor

A properly qualified auditor or auditors shall be appointed by the Directors and the remuneration of such auditor or auditors fixed and duties regulated in accordance with the Corporations Act.

23. SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS

23.2. Methods of service on a Member

The Company may give a document to a Member:

- (a) personally;
- (b) by sending it by post to the address for the Member in the Register or an alternative address nominated by the Member; or
- (c) by sending it to a facsimile number or electronic address nominated by the Member.

23.3. Methods of service on the Company

A Member may give a document to the Company:

- (a) by delivering it to the Registered Office;
- (b) by sending it by post to the Registered Office; or
- (c) by sending it to a facsimile number or electronic address nominated by the Company.

23.4. Post

A document sent by post if sent to an address:

- (a) in Australia, may be sent by ordinary post; and
- (b) outside Australia, or sent from an address outside Australia, must be sent by airmail, and in either case is taken to have been received on the fourth business day after the date of its posting.

23.5. Facsimile or electronic transmission

If a document is sent by facsimile or electronic transmission, delivery of the document is taken to:

- (a) be effected by properly addressing and transmitting the facsimile or electronic transmission; and
- (b) have been delivered on the business day following its transmission.

24. INDEMNITY

24.1. Indemnity of officers

- (a) This clause 24 applies to every person who is or has been:
 - (i) a Director or Company Secretary of the Company; and
 - (ii) to any other officers, employees, former officers or former employees of the Company or of its related bodies corporate as the Directors in each case determine.

Each person referred to in this paragraph (a) is referred to as an "Indemnified Officer" for the purposes of the rest of clause 24.

- (b) The Company will indemnify each Indemnified Officer out of the property of the Company against:
- (i) every liability (except a liability for legal costs) that the Indemnified Officer incurs as an Officer of the Company or of a related body corporate of the Company; and
 - (ii) all legal costs incurred in defending or resisting (or otherwise in connection with) proceedings, whether civil or criminal or of an administrative or investigatory nature, in which the Indemnified Officer becomes involved as an officer of the Company or of a related body corporate of the Company, unless:

- (iii) the Company is forbidden by statute to indemnify the person against the liability or legal costs; or
- (iv) an indemnity by the Company of the person against the liability or legal costs would, if given, be made void by statute.

24.2. Insurance

The Company may pay or agree to pay, whether directly or through an interposed entity, a premium for a contract insuring an Indemnified Officer against liability that the Indemnified Officer incurs as an officer of the Company or of a related body corporate of the Company including a liability for legal costs, unless:

- (a) the Company is forbidden by statute to pay or agree to pay the premium; or
- (b) the contract would, if the Company paid the premium, be made void by statute.

24.3. Deed

The Company may enter into a deed with any Indemnified Officer or a deed poll to give effect to the rights conferred by clause 24.1 on the terms the Directors think fit (as long as they are consistent with clause 24).

25. WINDING UP

25.1. Contributions of Members on winding up

- (a) Each Voting Member must contribute to the Company's property if the Company is wound up while they are a Member or within one year after their membership ceases.
- (b) The contribution is for:
 - (i) payment of the Company's debts and liabilities contracted before their membership ceased;
 - (ii) the costs of winding up; and
 - (iii) adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, and the amount is not to exceed $1.00.
- (c) No other Member must contribute to the Company's property if the Company is wound up.

25.2. Excess property on winding up

- (a) If on the winding up or dissolution of the Company, and after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property remains, that property must be given or transferred to another body or bodies:
 - (i) having objects similar to those of the Company; and

- (ii) whose constitution prohibits (or each of whose constitutions prohibit) the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed under this Constitution.
- (b) That body is, or those bodies are, to be determined by the Voting Members at or before the time of dissolution or, failing that determination, by a judge who has or acquires jurisdiction in the matter.

26. TRANSITIONAL ARRANGEMENTS

- (a) The initial Directors and Chairperson under this constitution will be those appointed under the previous constitution, subject to each of them being eligible under the Corporations Act and clause 13.3.
- (b) The initial Secretary under this constitution will be that appointed under the previous constitution, subject to them being eligible under the Corporations Act.
- (c) The initial Affiliate Members will be the Associated Leagues (as State Bodies) and Affiliated Bodies (as Functional Bodies) under the previous constitution.
